

Woodward & Lothrop,

New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

We Announce for This Monday

Our Annual May Sale Of Imported and Domestic Undermuslins,

At Which Time We Shall Offer Very Interesting Values, Prominent Among Which Are

A Manufacturer's Sample Undergarments.

WE HAVE secured from one of our best manufacturers of Women's Underwear, at a decisive price concession, his "sample line" of fine Nainsook, Cambric and Muslin Skirts, Gowns, Drawers, Chemises, and Corset Covers. The collection comprises strictly high-class garments of the very latest shapes and designs. Some are plain, others trimmed with dainty laces and embroideries in such styles as good taste suggests.

These high-class sample undergarments will be ready for your inspection this Monday morning

At Prices Greatly Below the Usual,

The Same as They Would Cost Us in the Regular Way.

NOTE—We arranged with the manufacturer to ship these samples early that we might give those of our customers who leave town in June an opportunity to supply summer needs in these lines.

The opportunity is equally favorable for prospective June brides to secure a most important part of the trousseau at a very decided saving.

Also these and many other special values:

Chemises, of French nainsook, hand-embroidered in pretty floral designs and finished with eyelets run with pink or blue ribbon.

75c Each. Value, $1.25.

Corset Covers, of French nainsook; neatly hand-embroidered; full front, finished with scalloped edge, and eyelets run with pink or blue ribbon.

69c Each. Value, $1.25.

Hand-made Gowns, of French nainsook; low round neck; three-quarter sleeves; front elaborately hand-embroidered and finished with scalloped edge, and eyelets run with pink or blue ribbon.

$2.69 Each. Value, $4.50.

Silk Petticoats, made of good, heavy taffeta, with deep flounce of sectional ruffles.

$2.75 Each. Value, $5.00.

We Also Offer With the Above at Special Prices

Beautiful Handmade French Lingerie

And a Large Collection of

Muslin Undergarments for Children,

Of Which the Following Are Excellent Values:

Children's Drawers, Skirts, Gowns, and Night Drawers, of cambric, nainsook, and muslin, trimmed with embroidery, lace, ruffles, and tucks.

25c to $2.50 Each.
Very Special Values.

Children's Nainsook Gowns, trimmed with dainty embroidery down front and on neck and sleeves.

Special Price, 75c Each.
Value, $1.25.

Children's Muslin Drawers, made full and roomy, with scalloped edged ruffle and neat tucks.

25c a Pair.
A Very Special Value.

Children's Muslin Skirts, some made on waist, with deep hem and clusters of tucks; others made on band, with tucked ruffle.

Special Price, 25c Each.
Value, 39c.

We Also Offer With the Foregoing

A Number of Fine Corsets,

Including the Parame, the Lily of France, and the Ivy. Materials are fancy broche, French coutil and batiste. The models are the very latest, with medium and long hips, which produce the fashionable hipless effect—so necessary for the present mode of costume.

Special Prices, $1.50 to $7.50 a Pair.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED.

Epworth League Celebrates at Foundry and Calvary Churches.

The twentieth anniversary of the general organization of the Epworth League and installation of officers was celebrated in Foundry M. E. Church and Calvary M. E. Church last night with appropriate exercises and addresses.

Rev. Robert M. Moore, pastor of Foundry Church, presided over the services in his church, presenting the newly elected officers of the local league, who were addressed by Rev. M. S. Poulson.

The principal address of the evening was made by Thomas C. Noyes, who took as his subject "The religion of work."

The new officers of the league are as follows: John S. Burchmore, president; T. E. Ford, first vice president; Emory I. Ireland, second vice president; Miss Grace Riggins, third vice president; Mrs. J. H. Stokes, fourth vice president; J.

H. Baillinger, treasurer; Miss Mary Colbe, secretary, and Miss Jeanne Patterson, superintendent of the Junior League.

The principal address at Calvary M. E. Church was delivered by Wilbur P. Thirkield, president of Howard University, who spoke on the "Supreme motive for service." The officers installed were: J. Broadley Sappington, president; Wilbur L. Davidson, first vice president; John T. Harr, second vice president; Miss Rose Osborne, third vice president; Miss Grace Hall, fourth vice president; Ralph Waring, treasurer, and Miss Elizabeth Bennett, secretary.

Caused Cattle Epidemic.

According to investigations by Dr. J. R. Mohler, head of the Pathological Bureau of the Department of Agriculture, the origin of the foot and mouth disease that created havoc among cattle of several of the Eastern States has been traced to imported vaccine virus. Dr. Mohler and officials of the Bureau of Animal Industry discovered that calves experimented upon with the virus communicated the disease to other cattle and an epidemic was threatened in New York, Pennsylvania, and Maryland.

READY FOR CONVENTION.

United States Civil Service Retirement Association to Meet.

The executive committee of the United States Civil Service Retirement Association is engaged in preparing for the annual convention which will be held in Pythian Temple Thursday evening.

The credentials committee consists of George R. Shields, Edson L. Whitney, and Hugh H. Brogan. Mr. Shields is a graduate of the University of Tennessee and Brogan and Whitney graduates of Harvard.

The auditing committee, M. J. O'Reilly, A. T. Smith, and B. W. Andrews, has already commenced its work. The members of this committee are expert accountants of the Treasury Department.

CARNIVAL BEGINS TO-NIGHT.

Odd Fellows Will Exhibit Feats of Mr. Roosevelt.

There will be a big time to-night at Odd Fellows' Hall in Seventh street, when the big carnival, under the auspices of Canton Washington, No. 1, Patriarchs Militant, opens.

The feats of Col. Roosevelt in the jungles of Africa will be depicted in the museum of arts, and other novel features will go to make the event peculiarly attractive.

Society Holds Mass Meeting.

A mass meeting of large proportions was held yesterday in Cosmopolitan Temple Baptist Church under the auspices of the Interdenominational Missionary Society of the United States, Cuba, Liberia, Hawaii, and the Philippine Islands, and the National Negro Baptist Evangelical Convention. Prominent negro religious workers from this country and Europe attended. "Should the United States aid in the evangelization of Cuba, Liberia, Hawaii, and the Philippines?" was the subject of discussion.

Talked to Senior Class.

Rev. Dr. W. H. Wilder, president of the National Training School, conducted religious services for the senior and junior classes yesterday morning and evening at Rust Hall, at North Capitol and M streets. The students marched into the chapel, which had been decorated with ferns and flowers, at 11 o'clock in the morning. Dr. Wilder delivered an address on "Blessedness of service." At the evening services a forty-minute love feast was held.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Brazilian Ambassador and Mrs. Nabuco Entertain.

DICKINSONS ON WAY HOME

Secretary and Mrs. Nagel Will Next Fall Take the House Which Gen. and Mrs. Chaffee Formerly Occupied—Miss Edgardina Hastings Entertains for House Guests.

The Brazilian Ambassador and Mrs. Nabuco entertained at their customary Sunday dinner party at the embassy last night. Their guests included the members of the staff and a few outside friends.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Dickinson, who have had a delightful visit in Panama, taking an interesting party with them on board the Mayflower, sailed for New York Saturday. They are expected in Washington again by May 21.

The Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Nagel, who have had an apartment at the Arlington since the inauguration, have taken the house 131 K street. They will not take possession of it until next autumn. This is the home formerly occupied by Lieut. Gen. and Mrs. Adna R. Chaffee. Mrs. Nagel, who is in deep mourning, and has spent very little time in Washington since she became a member of the cabinet circle, made a recent visit here to inspect the house before they decided upon it. Miss Nagel, the eldest daughter of the family, is in Europe, and is not expected back for some time, but the rest of the family will spend their summer at Marjorie, Mass. In the home also formerly occupied by Lieut. Gen. and Mrs. Chaffee and their family.

Miss Edgardina Hastings, niece of Judge Martin Morris, entertained at a tea yesterday afternoon in the home of Judge Morris, in Massachusetts avenue, in honor of her house guests, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Raphael, of West Virginia, the latter formerly well known here as Miss Julia Cherbennier, of Baltimore. During her girlhood she was a guest frequently, with her sister, Miss Lucie, who is a famous horsewoman, of Dr. and Mrs. James Dudley Morgan. The house was handsomely decorated with fleur de lis and orange blossoms out of compliment to the bride and bridegroom, who were married at Easter. Mrs. Stanley Bristol and Miss Elizabeth Beale were at the table, and Miss Gertrude Whyte and Miss Wiltoughby, of Baltimore, house guests of the hostess, alternated at the punch bowl on the porch overlooking the old-fashioned garden. Other assistants included Miss Georgia Knox, Miss Hannah Will Taylor, Miss Katherine Holbrook, Miss Elizabeth Matile, Miss May Kearney, and Miss Florrie May Raphael, sister of Dr. Raphael.

Miss Alice Vandergrift entertained at luncheon yesterday in the Chevy Chase Club. Her guests included Lieut. Commander and Mrs. Roscoe C. Bulmer, Miss Dorothy Williams, Mrs. James Wentworth Clinton, of New York, house guest of Miss Dorothy Williams; Miss Caroline Brownson, Lieut. Osterhaus, Lieut. Hart, Mr. Beale Bloomer, and Mr. Marshall Prentiss, of New York.

Mrs. Stephen Bramwell Trescott has announced the engagement of her daughter, Elizabeth Worthington Trescott, to Lieut. Philip H. Torrey, U. S. M. C. The wedding will take place next fall. Miss Trescott is a debutante of a few years ago.

Mrs. Murdock and the Misses Murdock, mother and sisters of Lieut. James F. Murdock, U. S. N., have gone to Portsmouth, Va., to attend the wedding of Lieut. Murdock and Miss Rebecca Nash, which will take place next Wednesday. Later on Mrs. and Miss Murdock will go to Canada for the remainder of the summer. They spent the winter in Washington.

Mrs. Todd, wife of Maj. Henry Todd, is entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Green, at her home in Nineteenth street.

Mrs. Cook, wife of Capt. E. H. Cook, who has recently been the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Magruder, has gone to San Francisco to join Capt. Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Crowninshield, who have spent the winter with the latter's father, Senator Du Pont, are at the Red Lion Inn, Stockbridge, Mass.

Invitations have been received for the marriage of Miss Nora Hoy, daughter of Pay Director Hoy, U. S. N., and Mrs. Hoy, now living abroad, to Pierre Wenzel, the ceremony to take place in the English Catholic Church in Paris on May 15. Miss Hoy made her debut in this city several years ago, but for the last few years has lived abroad with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Rojstevsky, whose marriage took place in Washington eight or ten years ago, while Mr. Rojstevsky was an attaché of the Russian Embassy.

Mrs. Calderon Carlisle and her daughter, Miss Virginia Carlisle, who are at the Virginia Hot Springs for the spring and early summer, were the guests for whom Mrs. William Allen entertained at a large and smart al fresco tea on Wednesday of last week on the lawn of the Casino.

Mr. and Mrs. John Philip Sousa are making their annual spring visit at Hot Springs, Va. They were luncheon hosts at the "Oaks" last Tuesday, and had among their guests Mr. and Mrs. George Guntton, of this city, who have a cottage there also.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Ward, who have leased their Washington residence to the Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Huntington Wilson, have taken "Red Cross Cottage," in Rhode Island avenue, Newport, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, of this city, who spent the spring season in London with Mrs. Page's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Algernon Burnaby, at their splendid estate, "Baggrave Hall," are now in Paris.

Col. and Mrs. Henry May have taken a house in London, and, with their daughters, Miss Isabel May and Miss Cecilia May, will spend the season there. Miss Cecilia May is one of Miss Ethel Roosevelt's most intimate friends.

Lieut. Mark Brook, U. S. A., and the guests of Mrs. Brook's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Francis Gunnell, they arrived here on Saturday.

Mr. O'Brien, United States Ambassador to Japan, entertained at dinner in Tokyo last week in honor of Rear Admiral Giles R. Harber, U. S. N., commander of the third division of the Pacific squadron, and Rear Admiral Sir Hedworth Lambton, commander of the British Asiatic squadron.

Invitations have been received here for the wedding of Miss Neva Valentine Mc-

DULIN & MARTIN CO.

Demonstration
—of the Famous

Stillman Safety Lamps

WITH the season for occupying summer homes at hand, this demonstration is a most timely one. Call and see it.

An inspection will convince you that Stillman Oil Lamps are absolutely safe under all conditions.

Will not and Cannot Explode.
They Go Out If Dropped.
They Are Odorless.
The Oil cannot Splash (a great danger in other lamps).
The Oil is Cold (hot oil causes Explosions in other lamps).
The Oil is fed from the bottom of the font, and is always Remote from point of ignition.
Can be Blown Out with absolute Safety, or Turned Out as easily as Gas.
Indorsed by Insurance Companies everywhere.

Prices of Stillman Lamps:
Brass, with chimney, $1.25 and $1.50
Brass and japanned, large size.
Reading Lamp, with Duplex burner, $4.50
Night Lamps for bedrooms, $1.00

Dulin & Martin Co.,

Pottery, Porcelain, China, Glass, Silver, &c.

1215 E St. and 1214-18 G St.

If Your Eyes Do
Not Feel
Comfortable

It may be that you need glasses, or perhaps the ones you are wearing do not suit—in either case you are inviting headache and nervousness.

We will examine your eyes thoroughly, and tell you at once where the trouble lies.

Glasses from $1.00 Up.

Columbia Optical Co.,
908 F Street N. W.

ALL Bugs Succumb

—to THOMPSON'S INSECT POWDER. NO bother from ants, roaches, mosquitos or other "creeps" if this insecticide is used freely about the house. AIR-TIGHT CANS.

10c, 15c, 25c, and 50c.

W. Thompson Pharmacy,
Frank C. Henry, Prop. 703 15th St.

MOTHS IN YOUR PIANO?

Now's the time when they get in their work of destruction. Piano "rots" are "die" for the moth worm. Better let us look at your piano. We may save you much expense by prompt action in killing the "germs." Phone or write.

DROOP'S 925 PENNA.
AVENUE N. W.

"You Can Get It at Andrews"

PAPER LANTERNS
All colors and shapes, just the very thing for lawn parties. From 5c to 25c each. DEALERS SUPPLIED.

R. P. Andrews Paper Co.,

Largest Paper House
South of New York.

625-27-29 LA. AVE. N. W.

CERES

A Flour of reputation. It gives perfect results at all times.

The whitest, lightest, most nutritious bread and rolls baked from Ceres Flour. Sold at Grocers.

WM. M. GALT & CO.,
Wholesale only,
First St. and Indiana Ave.

Elegant Virginia Estates.

1. One of the most beautiful homes in the South. About 1,000 acres, in first-class condition. Colonial style dwelling, with modern equipment. Perfect environment. Glorious views. Will offer $100,000.

2. A truly charming country home. 540 acres, part rich river bottom land. Timber boundary. Fine old-fashioned brick residence. Good outbuildings. Excellent to sell. $250,000. Personally included at $25,000.

3. Thoroughly equipped money-making dairy farm. 27 acres. Blue grass soil. Close to station. Choice region. Everything for $15,000. Real Estate Register, describing 20 select farms free.

H. W. Hilleary & Co.,
Charlottesville, Virginia.